Cap & barrel each with a band of raised floral repousse, bordered by inlaid blue enamel bands. Cap top engraved with three fancy initials. Medium/broad, flexible, "Astoria 2 14 CT" nib. A chip here and there in the blue enamel, otherwise near mint in original hinged, metal box. Box graphics somewhat faded. Cotton in box recent.	$1500
2	Astoria	1933	#2 Medium Safety eyedropper-fill in Gold-filled over BHR. Alternating plain and wave chased pinstripe panels. Cap with a 1/8" band of raised hearts on a vine, with in inlaid white enamel. Fine, flexible, "Astoria 2 14 CT" nib. Near mint+ in original hinged, metal box. Box graphics beautiful. Cotton in box no doubt recent.	$1500
3	Mabie Todd	1905	#2 eyedropper-fill Straight-holder in Sterling Silver. "Floral & Snail" repousse pattern. Very rare and quite gorgeous! Mabie Todd started in 1860 as a manufacturer of nibs, pencils, dip pen holders and pencil cases. They introduced their first fountain pen in the late 1870's. The "Swan" was introduced in 1890. Medium, flexible nib, with both under-feed and over-feed. Near mint+	$1500
4	Parker	1905	Model 11 Engraved Aluminum ED-fill with BHR taper-cap. One of the rarest early Parker's. Fine "keyhole" nib, signed "Parker Fountain Pen 3." A little wear to the black anodizing here & there, otherwise near mint.	$5000

The "Emege" imprint is on the side of the cap tube (pronounced "em-gee"). "M" and "G" were the initials of the Portugal importer of Pelikan pens, who tired of fixing under warrantee pens bought elsewhere. So he had "Emege" imprinted on his pens and only covered those under warrantee. GFT. Medium, flexible nib. Near mint. [Two available]. Other nibs available.	$2600

11	Waterman	1900	26 Taper-cap eyedropper-fill in Red Mottled Hard Rubber! To give you some idea of how rare this pen is, I wrote the Waterman Book and was able to include a RMHR Taper-cap only in the 24 size. That was the only RMHR Taper-cap I had ever seen, until this one, which is much rarer since it is larger! Medium nib. Crisp imprint! Near mint.	$2200
12	Waterman	1905	#402 "CHECKBOOK" eyedropper-fill in Sterling Silver "Filigree" pattern on BHR. Another extremely rare Waterman. Near mint+.	$3000

14	Waterman	1908	#0502 eyedropper-fill in Gold-filled "Golpheresque" pattern. While the pen was most certainly made in the USA, it was exported to England for sale. It comes in a hinged leather case with a signed satin cap liner and a lift-out red velvet tray with a center pen rest. Lifting the tray reveals the original eyedropper and instructions for the lever-fill, safety and eyedropper-fill pens, which includes a price list for the three models of pens in their various sizes. Fine nib, imprinted "Waterman Ideal England." New-old-stock. Mint.	$1100
15	Waterman	1913	#412 PSF COIN-FILLER in Sterling Silver "Filigree" pattern on BHR. A very, early pre-lever filling mechanism offered by Waterman during 1913-14. Two or three extremely minor chips in the enamel, otherwise mint.	$2500

The model was short lived because so many of the filler units broke. Folks that use the pen today simply fill it through the nib, like any Parker Aerometric filler, and avoid any risk of breaking the filler unit. This was also Parker's first model pen with the triangular gripping section and adjustable nib, so it falls onto the paper at exactly the angle most comfortable for the user (one of the reasons the later Parker 75 became so popular).
